

Retroviruses are us: Three Decades of the Swiss National Center for Retroviruses

Looking back and forward with Jörg Schüpbach

University Hospital Zurich, Hörsaal West, April 23, 2015, 14.15-19.00h

Session I

Chair: Alexandra Trkola

14:15	Alexandra Trkola Institute of Medical Virology, UZH	Welcome
14:20 - 14:30	Jürg Böni Institute of Medical Virology, UZH	A brief history of the NZR
14h30 - 14h45	Huldrych Günthard Division of Infectious Diseases University Hospital Zurich	The coevolution of the SHCS and the NZR
14h45 – 15h30	Philippe Lemey Clinical and Epidemiological Virology Rega Institute, KU Leuven	Evolutionary insights into the hidden history of HIV-1
15h30-15h55	Coffee break

Session II

Chair: Huldrych Günthard

15h55-16h05	Rainer Weber Division of Infectious Diseases University Hospital Zurich	The early days of HIV in Zurich – Brothers in arms: the NZR and the Division of Infectious Diseases
16h05-16h50	Didier Trono School of Life Sciences Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne	The touch of zinc fingers: mobile elements and the genesis of species-specific transcriptional networks
16h50-17h00	David Nadal Division of Infectious Diseases University Children's Hospital of Zurich	MoCHIV and the NZR – A Swiss success story
17h00-17h45	Roger Kouyos Division of Infectious Diseases University Hospital Zurich	Tour the force that paid off: The Swiss resistance database and what we can use it for
17h45-17h55	Hans Lutz Prof. em. Clinical Laboratory Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Zurich	Welcome Jörg in the Next Generation!
17h55-18h00	Alexandra Trkola and Jörg Schüpbach	Closing
18h00-19h00	Apéro	Foyer Hörsaal West
